

October 24, 2007 5PM – 7PM
Faneuil Hall – Downtown Boston

Celebrating the 50th Anniversary of the integration of Little Rock Central High School and the beginning of the end of segregation in America.

Celebrating Boston's struggles of the past, and celebrating its present gains and the promise of its future for racial and social justice

Our Guests of Honor: Seven of the "Little Rock Nine"

In 1957, nine students integrated Little Rock Central High School, Thelma Mothershed Wair, Minnijean Brown Trickey, Jefferson Thomas, Terrence Roberts, Carlotta Wallis LaNier, Gloria Ray
Karlmark, Ernest Green, Elizabeth Eckford, and Melba Patillo Beals

Special Guests:

Governor Deval Patrick
(Ret.) Sen. Dale Bumpers
Mayor Thomas M. Menino

First Black Governor of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts
Arkansas Senator when Little Rock Central High was integrated Mayor of Boston, Massachusetts

Honoring Our Local Civil Rights Legends

Sarah-Ann Shaw

Mel King

Chuck Turner

Jean McGuire

Civil Rights, where do we go from here?

In light of the expected dismantling of civil rights by the U.S. Supreme Court, how do we, as citizens, participate to ensure human and civil rights in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts?

Sponsored by:

Charles Hamilton Houston Institute for Race and Justice, Harvard Law School
Union of Minority Neighborhoods
City of Boston Mayor Menino
City of Boston, Office of Civil Rights

For information contact: Union of Minority Neighborhoods, Horace Small at 617- 541-4111 or 617-522-3349